

DUSTIN SUMMEY, NCTM, NEWSLETTER EDITOR - DUSTIN@EMUSICTECH.NET

A Message from ASMTA President Lauren Schack Clark

I hope this newsletter finds you well and in the midst of a rewarding Fall teaching season. I'm honored to be the new President of ASMTA. I'm sure I'll make many mistakes, so please bear with me. I'm relying on all of you for your experience and expertise! But also, please feel free to contact me at any time and I'll do my best to help you. Here are a few noteworthy items, some of which will be covered in depth in this newsletter by various committee chairs.

On the national level, if you know of a musical friend or colleague who is not already a member of MTNA, please invite him or her to join. As you know, it is so important for us to be able to share our ideas and stay current in the profession. Second, if you are not already a Nationally Certified Member, please consider becoming one. It will raise your status as a teacher both locally and nationally. We are second in the country in the percentage of Certified Members, and I think we can be first once again. Third, I hope you will consider joining me in attending the National Conference in Milwaukee, March 26-30. Please see http://bit.ly/cCBTON (shortened address) for more information. Finally, this is the MTNA Year of Collaborative Music, see http://bit.ly/9Ydyy7. possible, think about how you can incorporate collaborative music into your teaching and performance.

In state news, thanks to Dustin Summey for producing this newsletter, and for his work in getting our website updated. And thanks to Peggy Lewis and her dedicated team who are putting the final touches on updating our ASMTA Curriculum Guide, which will be an integral part of the website.

We're excited about the prospect of commissioning a composer this year, and Tim Smith and his committee are working on this.

Thank you for all you do for your students, your community, and for ASMTA. As Victor Hugo said, "Music expresses that which cannot be said and on which it is impossible to be silent."

Warm wishes, Lauren Schack Clark, NCTM

MTNA Certification

Certification is so important to all of us and I wish to encourage those of you who are not certified to pursue certification. It has many benefits for both you and your students. At this time Arkansas is second in the nation for the percentage of members holding certification. Only Rhode Island has a larger percentage of certified members. For a number of years ASMTA held that first place position. Let's try and attain that position once again.

I know from personal experience that parents check the MTNA certification list when selecting a teacher for their children. These parents realize that the certified teacher has made the effort to do what is necessary to be nationally certified and are therefore much more comfortable placing their children with that teacher. Certification also helps to attract better and more dedicated students. And another benefit, it sometimes allows the certified teacher to charge more for their instruction.

Dr. J. D. Kelly, ASMTA Certification Chair

Local Associations

The Delta MTA is pleased to announce two events for young pianists and one event for precollege students on any instrument or voice. For a schedule and information, see http://bit.ly/b2mMqn

Piano Rally - October 16, 2010. Each participant may perform one composition for aural and brief written comments. Participation will be at three difficulty levels: intermediate elementary, advanced. The repertoire performed need not memorized or polished. This is an event to reinforce what the teacher has already explained to the student and perhaps provide insight to the some new performance. It is also a good time to play some of the repertoire that will be performed at winter recitals and at the Federated Festival and ASMTA Festival later in the academic year. This year, in addition to the performance activity, there will be special classes in sight reading. The deadline for entry to the Piano Rally and Ensemble Concert was September 10, 2010, but if anyone wishes to join the Intermediate and Advanced classes, there is still room, so please contact Dr. J.D. Kelly at ikelly@astate.edu soon.

Piano Ensemble Concert on January 22, 2011. The first rehearsal for the January ensemble concert will also take place on October 16. The second ensemble concert rehearsal is scheduled for December 4, 2010, schedule TBA, and the third and final rehearsal will be on January 22, 2011, the day of the concert.

Sunday Music Sampler Recital on November 7, 2010. This is a performance opportunity for all pre-college students who are currently taking lessons on any instrument or voice. Rehearsal and warm-up in Recital Hall, 1:00 p.m., Recital at 3:00 p.m. Free for participants and audience alike! Deadline for return of the form is October 16, 2010.

Piano Stampede

MTACA is excited to be hosting the first Piano Stampede concert. This event is inspired by Monster Piano and other group-play performances, which are experiences great students, recruiting tools for teachers, and lots of fun for everyone. Students MTACA members will perform ensemble pieces on November 6th, 2010 at 6:00 pm at Capital Keyboard in Little Rock, AR. We hope to make this event an annual occurrence so if you did not participate this year, look for the Piano Stampede next year.

Natalie Griffin, MTACA

Sonatina Safari

This year our Sonatina/Safari festival will be held at UALR on January 22, 2011. This festival will provide your students with a variety of terrific activities: competing and receiving from comments judge, earning points toward a sonatina trophy, engaging in hands on musicianship activities, and inspiration from excellent teachers and enthusiastic peers. There won't be a dull moment! We keep the kids busy playing, moving, learning, and listening. My students and their parents have found this festival to be a worthwhile goal and enjoyable time. I encourage you to pick out a sonatina or sonata for your students now and get them working! Plan to join us in January.

Christine Franklin MTACA

Independent Music Teachers Forum

The IMT Breakfast was very well attended at the ASMTA conference in June. Our topic was studio documentation and I shared with the group some of the items I use in my studio. I had some very kind comments. Thank You!

From the comment forms, the topics listed below were recommended for future meetings. Please let me know which would be most interesting to you for the June 2011 conference. You can email me at lmcstudio@cox.net.

- Integrating a computer lab
- Performance classes
- Party ideas
- Recital tips
- Growing business with adult students
- Charging for weddings and other accompaniment jobs
- Teaching specific techniques
- Favorite teaching aids

Since the forum is made up of teachers of varied interests and teaching styles, it would be best to choose one of these topics and allow more of you to contribute to the group. It was mentioned that everyone could share spontaneously rather than come prepared. However, for the best use of our time, we need to choose a topic so everyone can come with their ideas organized.
